Just For Openers

968 GREENWOOD CT. SANIBEL ISLAND. FL 33957 (813) 472-0004

LET'S ALL OPEN THE NEW YEAR WITH A NEWLY ACQUIRED OPENER!

This 33rd issue marks the beginning of our 9th year of publication. It contains the 1987 membership list (note the new names—we welcome them from as far away as Tokyo, Japan) and the additions to THE HANDBOOK OF BEER ADVERTISING OPENERS AND CORKSCREWS and the Jan.'85 & Jan.'86 issues of JFO.

Due to the slowness of renewals coming in, even after the "reminders", plus the last minute surge of new additions, I am not too pleased in the lateness of this issue rather than my usual early mailing. I try to get the forthcoming issue to the printer by the 15th of the month prior to its issue. I would appreciate your cooperation in sending information you would like to see in it by the 1st day of that month.

Perhaps you are wondering how JFO is put together for your enjoyment & information. Except for screening of photos (a necessary process to make them printable) and the actual printing of each issue, I do all the layouts—except BILL McKENZIE'S Opener Trivia. The mailing labels and placing them and the postage on the envelopes are done by your Editor. The text etc. is done on my PC (Personal Computer) whose use and my time on it are donated by me. As a matter of note, the 5 years that DON BULL put out the JFO and the 3 years I have, costs were subsidized by us. No, I am not hinting that there will be an increase in dues. Let's consider it "As a labor of love as to what you are doing" expressed by 2 members.

My auction in the last issue turned out good results but was disappointed that some went begging for the minimum bid of $1.50. If you don't bid, you lose. As one person who bid stated "I can try with my bids of $1.50 each and hope". That person got them at that price. Another auction list is enclosed. They are all E-14s.

Occasionally, you will see advertising in JFO that does not seem to be about OUR specific hobby. Since many of you collect other items to openers/corkscrews, I have worked out cross (reciprocal) advertising. This means that the advertisers in JFO have an ad about JFO in theirs.

I have reviewed "Miniature Beer Bottles & Go Withs" by member ROBERT E. KAY and found it very informative. I suggest you order a copy for your Breweriana library. See his ad elsewhere in this issue (when ordering, mention you saw his ad in JFO).

If anyone of our members collects cancelled stamps, I will send those that I have from my past mail. The earliest postmarked request will get them. I will keep the other requests on file for future give-aways.

JFO got a plug on WINK-AM radio Ft. Myers, FL in a collectors talk show that I participated in. Your Editor is spreading the word to increase membership. Won't YOU help too?

Did You Know??

That there is a Federal Specification for a bottle opener/can piercer (I type)? If interested in obtaining it, write to me for information. Don't forget to enclose a 22 cent stamp. If any member wants information on any facet of our hobby that I can help with, a 22 cent stamp must be included for it-no stamp-no answer!

That the fastest way to remove old grout from bathroom tile walls, other than chiseling it off, is to use a sharp beer can opener (I type)?

That the 1987 JFO Convention is close at hand? See the details elsewhere in this issue.

That JFO shoulder/cap patches are available from me at $4.00 each-see the Jan.'86 issue-as are the 1986 A-32-3 Wooden Shoe Convention openers at $6.00 postpaid-see the July '86 issue?

That 18 members listed in issue #1 of JFO are still with us?

That Paul Ziegelmaier sold or given away all his openers & "Gifted" all his Corkscrews to the U.of Calif. - Lowie Museum in Berkeley, CA?

That member classified ads are FREE for 20 words or less but must ask 10 cents for each additional word so that the privilege is not abused?

Did the comic character on the face of this type K-10 bar mounted can opener belong to the Burger Brewing Company of Cincinnati, Ohio? If not, was it possibly used by some other brewery?

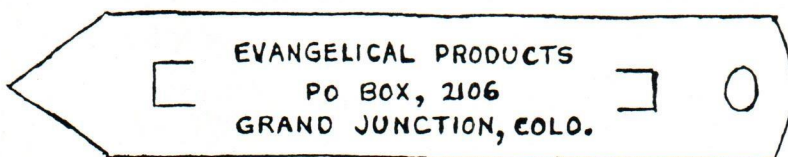

In a previous issue of opener trivia we featured an opener advertising A.J. Cermak for U.S. Senator. Since then one of our members sent in this opener advertising another political candidate. Does anyone have any idea where its from, or the history behind it?

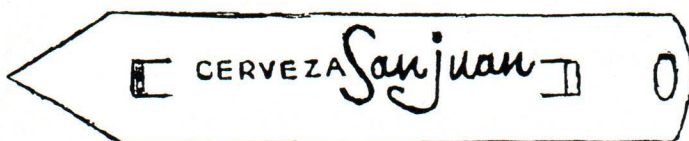

This cigar box opener in ways resembles beer advertising types B-5, B-26, and B-42, except without the opener. Notice that the ring is not split indicating that it was not designed for keys. Probably just a finger ring (?).

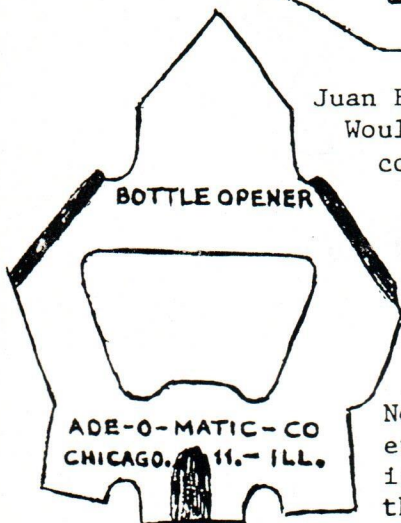

This I-13 type opener gives real meaning to the term "church key". I found it several years ago and kept it as a curiosity piece. Living in Colorado I expected to eventually come across others, but to this day it is the only one I have seen.

The last time I checked, this I-11 type opener (same wording both sides) was unlisted. I'm not sure if it's a rare opener or whether collectors think it's foreign. Cerveza San Juan (cerveza means beer in Spanish) is an American beer which was manufactured by the San Juan Brewing Co., Hammonton, N.J. from 1966-1969. Would like to get some feedback from our eastern collectors.

The handle of this ADE-O-MATIC 3 STRIKE OPENER is made of wood and is similar in size and shape to that found on type M-50. Considering this specimen I am reasonably certain that this company manufactured types M-35 and M-50.

Notice the indented area (arrow). The opener on type M-35 does not have this area on it. I wonder what its purpose was, and if the opener on type M-50 has this area on it.

ANSWERS TO OPENER TRIVIA

- M.C. Short of Roanoke, Virginia sent in a photostatic picture of a can of "Mule Kick". The can, which pictures a kicking mule, advertises: SEXAUER MULE KICK WASTE PIPE CLEANER ... CLEANS CLOGGED DRAINS.

M.C. wrote: "This can is about six years old and has a pull tab type opener. The old cans had a top similar to a paint can with a lid to pry open with a screwdriver etc."

- Another member has suggested that the FAMOUS BOTTLED BEER opener pictured in a previous issue, could possibly be from the SCHMIDT BREWING CO., DETROIT, MICHIGAN. He has a matchbook from this brewery which advertises: "Schmidt's FAMOUS BEER".
- Bob Nugent relates that the tiny corkscrew pictured in the last issue was not designed to open medicine bottles, but is in fact a miniature corkscrew along the lines of a salesman's sample.
- We never did get any information about the last MCINNERNY'S SPECIAL BREW (Iowa City, Iowa) A-42 type opener we pictured, but another member has submitted the A-28 type below with similar advertising. Some of you Iowa collectors must know something about this brand (?).

The October 1986 issue featured corkscrews. Unfortunately, this press release was not called to my attention to be published in it:

A Real Corker

The Seagram Museum in Waterloo, Canada - home of the original distillery - is presently displaying some 400 rare, antique and novel corkscrews. The pick of the lot have been captured in an intriguing composition and put into print in a handsome, colorful 21" x 30" poster. Visit the museum to see the entire collection, or order a poster for a peek at a selection of the finest. Send $7.50 for each poster payable to: The Seagram Wine Company, 375 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10152, Attn: Gladys Rosario-J Allow 4 weeks for delivery.

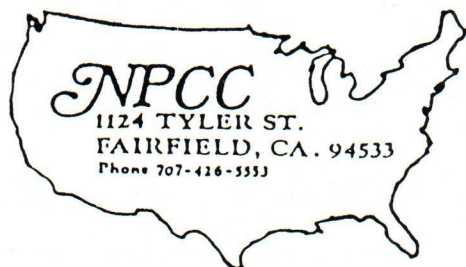

This is a portion of the poster. Your Editor's photo of it did not turn out as he expected. Also, black & white does not do it justice!

-ADDITIONAL CLASSIFIEDS-
