B-21-438 "Middle West" and "Hombrew" Beer

Another opener I received from Ray Brauener. Since the convention is in Missouri, this opener fits our location (the Midwest) and hopefully we will have some Hombrew beer. See you there.

2001 Convention St Joe, Mo. (23rd JFO Convention) (April 18th-22nd, 2001)

Its not too late to come to St Joe. Even if the Ramada is full, you have two nearby options. A Super 8 Motel is located about 30 feet outside the Ramada front door (call 1-816-364-3031 or 1-800-800-8000). Directly behind the Ramada is a Comfort Suites (call 1-800-228-5150). As this issue goes to print 40 members have registered. Don't miss out on the fun, comraderie, and finding all of those great openers and corkscrews at a JFO convention.

Members Update

Another JFO member, James Hupp, passed away last November 17th. James was member number 403. His wife, Anita, is continuing his membership.

Last fall Ralph Pitsch was diagnosed with Lou Gehrig's disease. Ralph is longer able to speak but still enjoy's collecting openers. His wife Ruby is his spokesperson.

Late last fall Bruce White was in a serious t-bone car accident. He is slowly mending with rods and pins in his leg. He will make a full recovery.

Bill Hanold, who has attended several JFO conventions, had a large tumor removed from his hip and is waiting to undergo a hip replacement.

Our thoughts and prayers go to James, Ralph, Bruce, Bill and their families.

"Boxes Full of Corkscrews" by Donald A. Bull (Now Available See Last Page)

Boxes Full of Corkscrews has 256 pages with a whopping 836 color photographs and it is a large format (9" x 12") hardbound book. The book is divided into 36 chapters and there is a complete index (see Sale Ads).

11th Annual Mid-Missouri Mega Meet (February 10th 2001) by Ollie Hibbeler #149

Left Lake of the Ozarks at 6:30 A.M. Saturday morning for a 80 mile trip to Columbia, Mo. Temperature was 10 degrees. Just 36 hours before, the temperature was 64 degrees! Bought gas at $1.46 a gallon. How high will it go?

There were about 100+ tables of "breweriana stuff" for sale. Said hello to many Midwest collectors that I have had the pleasure of knowing over the years. The JFO members there were Don and Cora Whelan (our JFO 2001 hosts), Art Santen, John Mlody, and a former member from the early 1980's that some members will remember, Bob Chapman. He is recovering from a stroke and Art drove him to the meet from St. Louis. He says that he intends to attend our JFO show in April.

Really didn't see many "hard to come by" openers. That caused a lot of trading and buying between Don, Art and myself. I did trade or buy the following:

C-49-UL	BUD LIGHT	Q-31-102	DEVON'S
E-14-427	PROGRESS	Q-31-UL	TEQUIZA
F-3-12	STAG	Q-36-45	BUD LIGHT BEER
G TYPE UL	BUD KING RACING KENNY BERNSTEIN	R-25-2	BUD LIGHT
N-72-2	MILLER	R-39-UL	BUD LIGHT
N-104-1	BUD LIGHT	M-121-1	BUDWEISER
Q-18-115	BUD	Q-62-1	TWO DOGS
Q-31-49	MICHELOB AMBER BOCK	R-34-1	BUDWEISER
Q-31-62	BUD ICE DRAFT	R-40-1	BUD LIGHT
Q-31-95	MORGAN ST. BREWERY	R-35-1	BUD LIGHT

And I also purchased a:

Storz retractable tape measure
Numerous micro brewery coasters

Fishing lure with Harley-Davidson ad
Fishing lure with "Point" beer ad

This show always helps me catch up on what I am missing from my MISSOURI openers collection. I now believe Anheuser-Busch has their name on more items than Coca-Cola! There will be a breweriana show on April 7th in Belleville, Ill. that I plan to attend. The show after that will be St. Joseph, Mo. where the GOOD openers will be-----so if you want to enhance your collection, you had better be there!! Get your reservations into Don as soon as possible. A good time is always had by all and I, among others that I talk to, can't wait. Life is good!

See you soon, Ollie

The 2nd Annual Jim Thorpe-Perkiomenville JFO Trade (January 10th 2001)

It was held in Harold Queen's bar in Jim Thorpe, PA. In attendance were Ben Hoffman and Harold Queen (& spouses). A lengthy discussion was held after which a hard fought trade was concluded (after about a half hour).

	Ben Received	A-66-UL	Rolling Rock
A-4-20	Utica	C-13-171	Consumers
B-23-110	Hennepin	G-62-1	Otter Creek
D-3-5	Terre Haute	N-107-1	Stoney's
G-28-UL	Yuengling	Q-31-104	Ice Harbor
N-108-1	Yuengling	Q-32-UL	Coors Extra Gold (Black on Orange)
	Harold Received	R-35-1	Bud Light
A-13	Non-Beer (2 Openers)	R-38-1	Budweiser

Just to let people know that good openers can be found in nice numbers at shows. Ben bought the following at a beer show last fall, A-1-87 Stone Malt, C-11-39 Buckeye, E-14-735 Banner, E-14-485 Crockery City, E-14-841 Globe, F-15-6 Matz, M-34-UL Anheuser-Busch and a P-19-UL Moerlein. Not bad for one of them little one day beer shows.

2001 Handbook Number Corrections

F-5 #38 was used last year, so all F-5 numbers were shifted up 1. The range should be 39-43. Also add M-29-85 HI-Point Beer Ale. If anyone else has spotted any other corrections, please let me know. Thank you to Art Santen and Don Whelan for turning these in.

2001 Convention Attendees Composite Want List

Anyone registering for the convention was asked to send a list of their 20 most wanted openers or corkscrews. The following is a composite list for anyone who registered by March 26th. If you have something on the list and want to trade or sell it, bring it to the convention. I'm sure most of these collectors will "trade the ranch" or "buy the ponderosa" to get something they need.

Spouse's Corner

by Pat Stanley, the Editor's Spouse

John just went to bed (9 o'clock), so it's time to settle down and compose my article for JFO. I am almost too anxious to head to St. Joe to be still long enough to create my contribution. The Whelans are such great people. Soon we will see friends we haven't seen for a year, only having the pleasure of talking to them or keeping up via email. With sadness, we will miss some of those who were regulars for many years, Vic Keown and Larry Biehl. You can be sure that there will be some memories of these fine members in our conversations this year.

Well, 1985 is the year in review. That's the year I moved to Chapel Hill, the first step in my fate to later meet and marry John in 1987. Then began the annual JFO Conventions in 1988, only missing one since, when our house was under construction and at a stage someone had to be here (and it sure wasn't going to be John).

January '85 newsletter began with a statement that 1985 marked the 7th year that JFO will "continue to be the only source for us opener collectors". Ebay wasn't here. Those were the years!

It also marked the 50th anniversary of beer in cans (this year marks the 50th anniversary of Verne & Laverne Vollrath). Less than 50 years ago, my family was making beer in the bathtub, living 100 miles from any major city in the back woods of Canada. They still didn't have cans!

The January '85 issue included a standardized grading system. In July '85, Dave Guica probably surprised a few readers by saying that "an opener in mint to fine condition is undesirable as I like them to have a bit of character, as though someone cared enough to carry & use it". Dave had one that some "character" very neatly stamped his initials on the blank side. It was one of Dave's favorites. I'm sure he wishes the openers in his collection could tell their stories. It would be a neat tale.

Have you wondered where you saw that picture of a cat with a whisker shaped like a corkscrew? Jima, owned by Laura Sturza of Kensington, Md was featured in January 1985. I wonder if she got the cork out of that wine bottle?

I've heard many times that the best attendance at the annual convention is when we travel to the Midwest. Therefore, the survey completed by 67 members in April '85 caught my eye. By region, the votes were as follows:

East Coast – 29; Midwest – 26; Mountain States – 3; West Coast – 5; And Anywhere – 4. Yup...that adds to 67! East Coast beat Midwest and next year, guess where the convention is being held? East Coast!! We will be looking for record breaking attendance!

The April '85 was a very special issue, for Thom Thompson submitted an article and many pictures of his Coca-Cola openers. He had been collecting for 15 years. What is really neat is that he shared his collection with JFO members to show his gratitude to all those who had contributed to the JFO newsletter, as it had been a great source of information. Thom also ended by thanking JFO for the opportunity to share his interest with the members.

In 1999, Thom made an enormous contribution to all collectors by making his collection available for photographing for the Soda Advertising Openers book, not just once, but twice. Few people know the story. The first time Thom's collection was hand delivered and returned in a very efficient manner, before John and Don knew that the pictures did not turn out well.

Asking for someone's most valuable possession the first time is difficult, the second time is unbearable, but the request was made and the sacrifice made to ship the collection to NC and back to Kentucky. What a relief to me that John would not be making two trips to guard this collection through the travels.

And well I remember the day the openers were expected here. It was very hot and Corkie and I went into Chapel Hill to meet a dog trainer at a noisy market area to continue our work to reduce Corkie's fear of noises. She was too stressed, so we had to leave the area immediately, only to confront more stress, as my car would not start. John, understandably, could not leave the house, as "the" collection was going to arrive.

It's a long story and all turned out well, with some funny things to remember (like at the point, I had taken John's truck into Chapel Hill and had the sick car running in the garage...only to die again. I got jumper cables from a college kid next door and was running back to our house, when the kid said.."you need a car too").

It was a given that I would have to work things out, as John, indeed, had to stay home. Four people plus AAA helped Corkie and me that day. If I hadn't had the hyperventilating dog with me, I might not have had any volunteers to help. Chapel Hill is very pro-animal rights.

We all rested easier when the collection was back in the home of the very gracious man who took some risks, so many people could enjoy the book. John would have never recovered if anything had happened to those openers.

Ed Kaye wasn't going to accept any listings of bottling companies without proof that they were associated with beer. Tony Zanghi had some interesting conversations in pursuit of proving that the Northampton Bottling Works was associated with beer. He talked to the President of the Northampton Historical Society, only to be given the name and phone # of the 80 year old Chief Engineer of the bottling company. It would be hard to say if Tony or the engineer enjoyed that conversation the most. I'm sure it made the engineer's day.

Jack Ford sent a copy of a Richter Bottling Works ad as his proof for Eastside brew. We don't know the story behind that acquisition. It would be an interesting one, no doubt.

Bill Ennis shared the explanation of the Potlatch symbol, capped with a spire and a question mark in the July issue. In 1911, a proposal was made to build in Seattle, the tallest building "west of the Mississippi". There was considerable doubt that it would ever be build, which was reflected on the Rainier Potlatch symbol. It was built in 1913, the Smith Tower, with a top like a Potlatch symbol. It is still the favorite building of most Seattlelites despite being dwarfed by numerous other buildings.

In July '85, a Texas 7th grade history teacher, Mike Hennech, asked for help finding out information on Texas breweries. In October, he shared what he found out with JFO. Now, we know why Roger Jarrell and John Burress can't find many Texas openers. All those 7th graders got hooked.

Herb Danziger is the specialist on Syroco (Syracuse Ornamental Company) and shared some interesting information on these detailed collectibles.

Gary Deachman and Bill McKienzie told the story behind the 1985 convention opener in the July issue, the story of the Telluride Brewery of Telluride, Colorado. I read this article yesterday morning, including the story that it was the town where on June 24, 1889 Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid robbed their first bank. Yesterday afternoon, John and I were on our way to an Antique store in Raleigh and I saw something about a Health Spa in Telluride, Colorado, so I quizzed John. John, "What was the name of the town related to the 2nd Denver convention opener?". You know him when it comes to openers... he just rattled Telluride right off.

I never knew until I read the Collector of the Issue article on Ed Kaye that he grew up in an orphanage in Chicago. He made that experience work positively for him throughout life.

I asked John what happened to Jim Mensch. He and his wife, Karen enjoyed the hobby and the JFO club. Well, don't know where they are today, but most of their collection is in the hands of Mark Barren!

Some more could be added from my review of 1985, but even the night owl is getting tired (11 p.m.). Perhaps from my trips to the airport the past two week-ends, exposing Corkie to all the noises of luggage crashing, planes taking off, people scurrying by, all while she is in her little flight bag that took her to Anchorage two years ago, as a passenger under our seats and will bring her to St. Joe in just a few weeks.

She was going to stay behind, but news came that Joe and Jackie Young will be bringing home a new chocolate lab puppy, Bailey, this week. Bailey will ride along to JFO with her new family.

Corkie in her Flight Bag, Anxious to Meet Bailey

Bailey, Just Hanging Out First Day at Home

Well, Jackie and I have explored San Francisco and Chicago together at JFO, started new hobbies after time spent at our favorite convention and walked and talked for hours on end. So, if Jackie will be there with Bailey, Corkie just had to come. Corkie will be 5 tomorrow, so she will be a little bent out of shape when I hug that new little puppy that I've only seen in emails so far.....so, please give Corkie a little extra TLC when you see her checking out the rooms for a good Corkscrew. (But don't give her any treats. She just finished allergy tests and is allergic to beef, along with other things).

You Be There!!!! Come to St. Joe and spend time with your JFO Friends.

"Opener & eBay Trivia"

The Hires handle item shown in the October issue had a Pepsi counterpart sold on eBay the last quarter and was described as a "handle and bottle opener" with a final price of $75.00. The few shows and flea markets I attended the last month seem to have the same continuing theme song. The small items are being sold on eBay and you know what category openers and corkscrews fall in. Here are eBay results of selected items from the last three months..

B-8 Coca-Cola

A-16 Tenn-Cola

"Opener & eBay Trivia" (Continued) 2001 Handbook Prices

Items of special interest are the A-1-81 Smith bringing $113.50 with 4 bidders at $80.00 and above. When the local area advertising collectors jump in, the price can go way up. The same logic applies to the A-25-1 Hamms bringing $160.27. There have been numerous B-2 Coca-Cola openers on eBay but the one bringing $158.27 looked to be in exceptional condition. Most of the B-2 Coca-Cola openers always have a lot of wear. I was able to buy the B-8 "Coca-Cola Bottling Works Columbus, Ohio". You can never go too wrong buying any combination bottle opener and cigar box opener pieces and I had not seen this style with Coca-Cola advertising before.

The B-27-2 Erie was bought with a new eBay feature called "Buy It Now". Jim Osborne was lucky enough to get this opener for an opening buy price of $30.00 before anyone else bids. When an auction starts and the seller has used this option, the first person to see it and is willing to pay the "Buy It Now price", can purchase the opener right then and the auction ends. The C-26-1 Sayre is only the second C-26 with a beer ad I have seen. Many years ago I did have a non-beer one which Herb Danziger ended up buying at my first convention (1986 Fort Myers hosted by Ed Kaye). The D-11-1 Hagerstown was one of the last openers offered by former JFO member Bob Carter. Over a two year period he sold close to 1,000 openers with a lot of good beer and soda ones. He had lost interest in the early 80's and his openers had been stored away every since. It was a real pleasure being able to get some of his openers.

The G-5-14 Lion had been offered before on eBay and brought a high price that time. Once a again Cincinnati beer openers bring real good prices on eBay. The H-2-74 Wentzler was a surprise at $64.55 when I figured $25.00 would be a good price. L-2 beer openers as long as they are not A-B ones almost always bring very good prices as reflected in the three shown. The M-2-5 Bartholomay is very tough to find in real nice condition and this one was a grade 6 to 7 and really you do not see this offered in any condition very often.

The round knife style, N-45-2 Hamms, was a very hot item with several bidders. An item that I would figure $50.00 tops and brought close to $250. You just never know. The wall mounts are doing well with a G-5 G.E. Refrigeration doing real well at $330.88. Most Starr X collectors are not shy at bidding. Anheuser-Busch are easily available on eBay with the exception being ones in nice condition. When they are offered, the prices are in the 400-1500 dollar range. I was fortunate in my purchase of the P-159-1 Pabst to have an intact factory scene stanhope. It was certainly one of my better eBay buys.

In other auction news, Lynn Geyer's last auction had a R-8-1 Kaiers in excellent condition. The final price of $1,525 did not include the 10% buyer's premium. Bob Stahly's purchase of the R-8 last fall for $1,050 looks like a real good buy now.

Last but not least are the price update tables for the new 2001 Handbook. Especially with eBay, prices have gone up on many styles. Hopefully these changes reflect the current trends.

Boxes Full of Corkscrews

by Donald A. Bull

Boxes Full of Corkscrews by Donald A. Bull is a photographic record of hundreds of corkscrews in their original packaging. Here is an in depth look at corkscrews both old and new with details about manufacturers, trademarks, copyrights, and the like gleaned from the packaging and the objects contained therein. Collector Jack Bandy describes the task Bull has accomplished with: "Through hundreds of letters, personal contacts, visits, phone calls, faxes and e-mails, he's harvested invaluable background and historical data on many of these firms both extant and extinct, which adds further insights into the origins of many of our corkscrews. Throughout this book his 'Corkbits' tell these stories, and are gold mines for those of us with a passion for in-depth historical and source material."

Author's Note: I had a lot of fun with this new book. I traveled to Michigan and got boxes full of corkscrews to photograph from collectors Danziger and Roe and I was amazed at the lack of duplication between the two collections. A trip to California was highlighted by visits to the Bandy and Sharp houses to photograph even more boxes full. A visit to Chicago resulted in some nice photos from the Britton collection. In Canada I got photos of MacLean's collection. Then a bunch of corkscrews collectors including Anthony, Bystram, Cameron, Daniel, Dolliver, Donoghue, Goodman, Luterman, Roger, and Wlochowski boxed up their boxes full and sent the to me to photograph. I shot all of those, added my own collection photos, and ended up with a whopping 836 color photographs and a wealth of information. A lot of corkscrews that lost their packaging along the way, are now identifiable. Corkscrew orphans can now be matched up with their mates. And a lot of information about origins, manufacturers, and histories has been revealed. I know you will enjoy perusing this book as much as I enjoyed writing and photographing it.

Boxes Full of Corkscrews has 256 pages and it is a large format hardbound book. The book is divided into 36 chapters and there is a complete index. The book was published in February 2001.

If you already have my The Ultimate Corkscrew Book or Bull's Pocket Guide to Corkscrews, you will find very little duplication - 95% of the boxes full of corkscrews were not pictured in the previous books.
